GOVERNOR TENER THINKS VACATION IS NOT NECESSARY FOR LEGISLATURE

Old Stagres Propose Ten Days Recess But Executive Suggests They Stay on Job

PROPOSED SUNDAY LAW

Bill Introduced to Give Boroughs Power to Regulate Closing of Places on First Day of Week

(Special Correspondence)

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 2—For fear that they may get something done at this session, the old stagers of the Legislature are proposing a ten days' recess this month, in order to permit a frame-up to decide just what the public will or will not stand for in the matter of legislation this session. Governor Tener, however, thinks differently, and it is stated that he is decidedly of the opinion that the representatives of the people should perform the service for which they were elected. He wants them to stay on the job. They may take a recess, but it will not be with the Governor's approval.

Thus far there has been little done, except to introduce bills. Representative Ward comes to the front with a bill making the reading of the Bible obligatory in the public schools, which is pretty sure to stir up a lively fight. A radical Sunday observance bill has been introduced by Representative Robinson of Delaware, which gives boroughs the power to regulate the closing of places of business and stop the performance of worldly employment on the first day of the week. Should this act become a law boroughs could stop railroad trains and street cars, as well as every other form of secular labor that is usually performed on Sunday.

Bill posters are aroused over a measure introduced taxing bill boards $5 a square foot. Bill Poster Hommell of Belle Vernon, has already wired a petition against this measure to the Fayette members, and a big fight will be made against the act.

If an act introduced by Representative Ailman becomes a law, some of the Washington county townships will not have to levy any school tax at all. This act provides for he payment of school teachers entirely from the State treasury. In this case the school appropriation would have to be more than doubled. Fallowfield township, which has usually been levying half a mill school tax, would no longer have to go through the motions, unless their board would take a notion to build and establist the high school for which some of the partons have been agitating

A bill prohibiting the importation of cold storage food into the State has been introduced. This should receive the thoughtful attention of all householders.

John W. Ailes, John H. Bowers and Theodore J. Allen have been appointed viewers to assess benefits and damages in the matter of the construction of a sewer in Parkinson street, between Church street and the crest of the hill at Monongahela.

W. B Taylor and family who have been in Knoxville, Tenn., for some time have returned.

Bruce Cross left yesterday for Clearfield, being called there by the death of his sister.

DONORA TO GET FILTERED WATER

Pipes Laid Across River and Service Installed Through Monessen Plant

Donora is the second town in Washington county to get reasonably pure water. Yesterday the Donora Water company turned into their mains water pumped through from the Monessen filtration plant, filtered to a reasonably pure degree. The water is pumped across the river at Bamford and by a high pressure pump on the hill is distributed.

WORK RESUMED ON NEW RIVER ROAD

Donora-Mononganela Highway Construction Work May be Finished Soon

Work discontinued late last fall on the new brick highway being constructed between Monongahela and Donora has been resumed and efforts are being made to push it to an early completion. Than, it is authentically stated, will begin the construction of a street car line leading north from Donora.

Donora has a street car line that runs the length of the town and has a street car called "Maud" for short. Citizens of that community greatly feel the need of better transportation facilites.

BUSINESS MEN MEET

Important Business to be Taken up by Association.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Important business, among which will be the election of officers for the ensuing year, will be taken up tonight at the regular monthly meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association.

A president, vice president and treasurer will be elected tonight. The secretaryship is an appointive office, the directors of the association choosing the man for this place.

Reports of committees appointed at the last meeting of the association will in all probability be heard tonight. The publicity committee, appointed to secure data on the town, is ready to report, and it is understood the committee on good roads and the one for a proposed free bridge between Monessen and Charleroi are also ready.

GRIEVING FRIENDS COME WITH FLOWERS

Boy Gets His Feet Wet and Report Spreads That He is Drowned—Doesn't Like Business of Being a Corpse.

Robert Watkins, a Charleroi school boy, is not dead, but he has some semblance of a cold, contracted, it is stated, through getting his feet wet. His obituary has not been published, thank you.

Still people insist upon bringing flowers for the deceased, it having been reported that he was drowned.

Apparently the other day Robert had a misfortune. He was playing, so the story runs, with some other boys about his own age, when he fell into a creek. In some way the report got out that Robert was drowned, and it wasn't long until sorrowing, fearful friends began to drop in to console the grieved relatives and lay flowers on the dear lad's bier. Poor child. To think that his young life had been snuffed out at so tender an age. How natural he would look.

But Robert wasn't dead, as has been heretofore remarked, and he rather resented the insistence of people declaring he was, so a request has been made to make public the fact that it was all a mistake.

EDUCATORS OF COMMUNITY PLAN BIG MASS MEETING

Instructors Will Hold Session Friday and Saturday at Belle Vernon---Interesting Addresses Scheduled.

Great interest is being taken in an educational mass meeting to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, Belle Vernon, Friday evening and Saturday morning and afternoon under the auspices of the North Belle Vernon school. Educators of towns in the vicinity will attend and take part in the sessions. The object of the mass meeting is to bring together the school forces of the valley in order that a more definite line of action along school lines may be mapped out and the educational values of the various phases of school work emphasized accordingly.

Friday evening there will be a general session. Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock there will be two sessions, one a primary meeting and the other a round table session. The convention will close in the afternoon with a session at 1:30 o'clock.

In all probability Superintendent of Schools James G. Pentz and a number of Charleroi teachers will attend the sessions. Miss Edith Woodhall, a grade teacher at the Ninth street building, will discuss at the Primary meeting the topic, "The Different Phases of Busy Work in the Primary Grades and How to Make the Work Effective." Teachers and principals of various places nearby will have parts on the program. Special music will be rendered.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Congregation Formally Bids Rev. Joshua Adieu

Rev. C. S Joshua, late pastor of the First Baptist church and his wife were tendered a farewell reception by the member of the church and congregation last night. The affair was held at the church.

Following a brief prayer meeting, an informal meeting was held, presided over by Samuel Hawkins, superintendent of the Sunday School, and many short appreciative talks were made by members of the church and others who have known Rev. Joshua and his wife since they came here, showing the esteem in which they were held. Much sorrow was evidenced that the popular minister and his wife were forced to leave, but best wishes were extended to them that they enjoy the best success in their new field.

The ladies of the church served lunch after which a brief impromptu musical literary program was furnished, Miss Helen Hopkins of Monessen and Tom Harris of the same place singing solos, with accompaniment by Prof I. T. Daniel and Mrs. Joshua giving a reading. Rev. and Mrs. Joshua left this morning for their new home in Nesquehoning.

Card of Thanks

Through the medium of your paper I desire to thank my friends in Charleroi and vicinity for their many kindly offices and expression of sympathy extended on theoccasion of the death of beloved wife, Mrs. Sarah Reilly. I am truly grateful to all.

P. J. Reilly.

PHILLIPS WILL MANAGE CLUB

Signs Up to Head Youngstown of Ohio and Penn'a League.

After having received good offers from several places in different leagues ranging from the American down to the O. and P., "Bill" Phillips, the veteran pitcher and manager, who for years was with the Chicago Nationals this week signed articles to manage the Youngstown, Ohio, club of the O. and P. league at a handsome salary. Already Phillips is getting a line on players and expects to have several under contract before many days have passed. He will secure for Youngstown a number of faces heretofore strange to O and P. fans. As he is to be given a free rein he will undoubtedly land a winning team. Youngstown last year finshed in seventh place To accept the O and P. club's offer Phillips turned down offers made by St. Louis and Cleveland of the American league to scout.

BRER GROUNDHOG SEES SHADDER

Weather Prognosticater Peeps Out of Hole and Then Ducks Back Again

Weather prognostications were enthusiastically prognosticated today, with Bre'er groundhog on the business end of the said prognostications. Bre'r Groundhog stuck his head out of his hole this morning along about 8 o'clock, saw his shadow and ducked back again. By this time he should be making noises that would make a buzz saw look sick. Sizzling cold weather may be looked for now to continue for six weeks to come.

MRS. TENER HAS "AT HOME" PARTY

Entertains Friends At Executive Mansion at Harrisburg

Mrs. John K. Tener gave the second of her afternoons at home yesterday in the Executive Mansion in Harrisburg and many prominent Harrisburg women called at the executive mansion. Mrs. Tener was assisted in receiving by Miss Edith Tener of Sewickley, Mrs. George Kunkle, wife of the Dauphin county president judge, Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. William J. Calder and Mrs Spencer C. Gilbert.

Mrs. Tener has issued cards for two evenings at home in February and on February 14 Gov. and Mrs. Tener will give a reception in honor of State officials and members of the Legislature.

CANDLES BLESSED

Solemn Ceremony Observed at St. Jerome's Church.

THROAT BLESSING FRIDAY

Today St. Jerome's Catholic congregation is observing one of the most solemn ceremonies of the Roman Catholic church, the Candlemas. Candles used throughout the church year in the various ceremonies were blessed this morning. Two masses were held, one at 7:30 o'clock and the other at 8 o'clock. It was at the latter that the blessing of candles took place. Candlemas Day is also known as the "Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin."

Friday will be another solemn day in the Roman Catholic church, being known as the Feast of Blasius, or the blessing of the throats. A pretty legend originated this feast. It is said that centuries and centuries ago a boy in eating fish got a fishbone stuck in his throat. It caused him great distress until finaly removed by St. Blasius. That saint thereupon became noted for his remarkable cures for throat afflictions.

The Blessing of the Throats at St. Jerome's church will take place at 8 o'clock Friday morning. An earlier mass will be held at 7:30 o'clock and another will be at 7 o'clock.

HEAD PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD MEN VIEW ROUTE OF PROPOSED PLAN

General Manager and Part of Officials Take Trip Through Southwestern Part of State.

PASS THROUGH CHARLEROI

Make Inspection of Monongahela Railroad Tracks Leading From Brownsville to Terminus at Martin

General Manager W. Hayward Myers of the Pennsylvania railroad with a party of head officials today made a trip over the Monongahela division of the sysem, and it is stated reviewed the proposed route of the Monongahela railroad extension from Martin to Rivesvile, W. Va. The party went through Charleroi on the way south by special train at 9 o'clock this morning.

Switching to the Monongahela railroad tracks at Brownsville the party went to Martin, the present terminus of that railroad. Then they came back over the same route and by another branch went to Leckrone. Transferring to the B. and O branch line there the party went to Fairchance, and then over the B. and O. lines, it is stated, south to Fairmont.

It is supposed that the trip of the general manager and his party has considerable to do with the beginning of work on proposed extensions to West Virginia and to Charleston. Mr. Hayward probably knows more about the general workings of the complete system owned by the Pennsylvania railroad than any other man, and his presence in any territory is not without special significance. The rumors of big developments in Greene county and other southwestern Pennsylvania points is borne out.

Not only does Mr. Hayward know all about the new lines to be built but he likewise has indirect charge of the building of new stations No stop was made to examine the condition of Charleroi's dilapidated structure however.

Promoting Home Trade

Acting in conjunction with the efforts of the local Board of Trade to promote the business interests of the town, the Washington Record makes the following query:

"Why not recommend that Washington merchants use the newspapers for placing their wares and goods fairly before the buying public? This is the secret of reviving business in Washington, as much as any one thing. Out of town papers which are widely read in Washington carry with them glittering and bona fide inducements to people of Washington to come and spend their money. And the people do. It has been figured that an average of $500 in Washington money goes out of town each day. These figures look large, and the same money spent in Washington would be welcomed. Washington merchants meet bargain for bargain, the offer of outside firms. It should not be that offerings of Washington merchants are overlooked.

"Local papers provide the Washington merchants the channel through which contents of their shelves can be dispensed. Home advertising receives just as much attention as does that of the foreign market, and all that is required is that the people be given the same opportunity to see what is actually going on within the business houses of this town."

Many merchants in different towns do not advertise because they claim they cannot see any direct results. There is, however, a direct result apparent in such towns where the merchants do not advertise in the shape of a marked decrease in local trade, and an increase in the out-of-town buying on the part of the local people. "Out of sight, out of mind," applies to business firms as well as to individuals. Outside advertisements get in their deadly work when local merchants cease to advertise, and the whole community feels the effect.

"Holler" Now

Through the different bills introduced in the legislature, the cold storage monopoly, so far as this State is concerned, may be settled once and forever. Various restrictions, limitations and regulations are proposed, and out of the mass may be sifted the proper regulations which will protect both the health and pocketbooks of the plain people.

It is up to the plain people, however, to look after their interests, and insist that an act be passed that will not contain a loophole as big as a barn door though which a trust coach and four can be driven. This is a problem that affects every household in the Commonwealth in the direct matter of dollars and cents. Mass meetings are being held regularly to promote local option, woman suffrage, civic improvements and what not. Why not hold some mass meetings to improve conditions of the household exchequer? To "bust" the cold storage trust would be to mean more eggs, better butter and cheaper meat for every family in the State. With the proper regulations on cold storage every family would live better and perhaps save enough money to take a trip to Atlantic City in the summer.

Some persistent, united and energetic work along this line just now will do more to save money for the working people than to "holler" later on over the burdens imposed by "Schedule K" of the wool tariff.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Apparently Charleroi was the first town or city in Washington county to get reasonably pure water. Thus we lead again while other follow.

Mrs. Schenk has become so fond of publicity that she tried to cross the Ohio in a skiff during flood time. She got publicity all right, but came near not needing it.

The man who's always happy
Is envied as a rule;
Sometimes he's a philosopher
And sometimes he's a fool.

After she is divorced Mrs. Schenk would have no trouble getting a job in a chorus.

Double tracks are to span the entire country. Will that noticeably reduce the cost of living?

Courtesy is something that all learned while young and most forget in older age.

The spirits didn't work, and the McKeesport girl failed to recover her sight.

It's not often people get a chance to hear good music, because there are so few good tunes being maufactured nowadays.

Little Willie

He was his parents' idol,
Their first born tootsie pet;
They made his life so easy
That he is idle yet.

After all has been said and done the fact still remains that a mechanical piano payer is better than any of the human devices.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The precept of watching as well as praying was never better exemplified than by an incident I witnessed when a small boy in Greene county," said a resident of the community at the Elks' club house the other evening. "In the farming community where I lived we used to go to Sunday school at a crossroads school house Sunday afternoon. As this was about the only occasion when the young people could get together during the week it was attended by the farmers' boys and girls from far and near. Of course some of the elder people were present in the capacity of officers and teachers. The superintendent was one of our farmer neighbors, a husky man of middle age, who used to pray fervently and long, standing with his eyes closed. Then it was that the boys used to cut up all kinds of rusties, and usually created much disorder.

"One afternoon the superintendent kept his eyes open during his prayer At the further end of the room he saw one boy jab another with a pin, which was followed by an exclamation that caused a titter among the girls. Walking up the aisle of the school room, still praying the super grasped one boy by the collar cuffed his ears soundly and slammed him down in a seat. Reaching for the other boy he administered the same punishment, but in the meantime he still prayed on, never batting an eye or missing a word or sentence of his fervent prayer. Walking back to the front of the room, still praying, he faced the congregation again and finished his prayer amid a silence that was loud in its awful stillness.

"After that we always kept our eyes peeled to see whether the super watched as well as prayed."

Those big hats that the ladies now affect get their wearers into trouble in more ways than one. The other evening a newly married couple were walking down McKean avenue when a friend, a young man, overtook them. The trio walked along in pleasant conversation, the young man being slightly in the rear of the couple. All at once the husband noticed his wife stop suddenly. Turning around he saw her apparently struggling, and the young man in close proximity. A few wild thoughts flashed through his mind at the sight of the apparent mixup, when he saw that a bow of ribbon on his wife's hat had caught on a mail box beside the walk, and held her fasts while the friend was trying to release it.

"My hat's caught on this mail box," said the wife, as her husband came forward to lend his assistance.

"Is that all," he responded with a sigh of relief.

"All?" she replied in a tone of withering sarcasm. 'Isn't it enough? If the trimming isn't all torn off, it's a wonder."

At the Macbeth Evans chimney factory is employed such a conglomeration of nationalities, that the factory rules are printed in more than a dozen languages and dialects, in addition to the more prominent nationalities are to be found Bohemians, Armenians, Roumanians, Bulgarians, those who speak the various Slavish and Russian dialects and Turks. Some of the most skilful decorators and etchers are from the Balkan states, and many of them have been employed in Contantinople, which is a famous glass manufacturing centre.

ISN'T THIS TRUE?

A man may do a fair business and never advertise, but he has no right to assert that advertising will not pay him until he has tried it in a Business Way and finds that his trade has not improved as a result. Prejudice in its most unreasoning form prevents many a man from honestly testing advertising. He is afraid the evidence will prove his deeply grounded decision absolutely unreasonable and incorrect---he prefers losing business to suffering such a shock.

No medium reaches so many people in this territory as

Insert an attractive display advertisement for a reasonable time and be convinced that advertising will produce results.

The Scrap Book

Not Fit to Be Minister.

When the announcement was made that a certain distinguished citizen had been appointed to join the nation's diplomatic forces and assume an important foreign portfolio, the matter was naturally discussed with a great deal of interest among his acquaintances.

One day the subject came up in a company among which was one old fellow who had known the appointee for upward of forty years.

"What do you say he has been appointed to?" the old fellow asked.

"Why," answered one, "he has been appointed to be minister in one of the largest cities of Europe."

"Well, that's the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of," snorted the friend of the new diplomatist. "He's a nice feller, all right, but he ain't fit to be minister nowhere. Why, durn it, he don't even know the Lord's prayer."

Face the Sun.

Don't hunt after trouble, but look for success.
You'll find what you look for; don't look for distress.
If you see but your shadow, remember, I pray,
That the sun is still shining, but you're in the way.
Don't grumble, don't bluster, don't dream and don't shirk;
Don't think of your worries, but think of your work.
The worries will vanish; the work will be done.
No man sees his shadow who faces the sun.

Sometimes, Tommy.

The title of this dialogue might be "Why Papa Believes in Corporal Punishment:"

"Papa?"

"Well?"

"Is there a Christian flea?"

"Why, what on earth ever put that idea in your head?"

"The preacher read it today from the Bible, 'The wicked flee when no man pursueth.'"

"Why, Tommy, that means that the wicked men flee"—

"Then, papa, is there a wicked woman flea?"

"No, no. It means that the wicked flees runs away."

"Why do they run?"

"Who?"

"The wicked fleas."

"No, no! Don't you see? The wicked man runs away when no man is after him."

"Is there a woman after him?"

"Tommy, go to bed!"

A Model.

Mr. Jones came home at an unseemly hour the other night and was surprised to see Mrs. Jones sitting up for him below stairs, with no other light than that of the gas lamp, which faced the door, to keep her company.

"M-M-Marie," he said huskily, "y-you shouldn't sit up s'late when I'm out on business."

As Mrs. Jones did not answer him, he continued in an alarmed voice:

"Shorry, m'dear, but it's last time—tell you I'm sorry. Won't shpeak to me?"

At this moment Mrs Jones called from above stairs:

"Mr. Jones, who are you talking to at this hour of the night?"

"Thash what I'd like to know m-m-myself," stammered Jones.

Mrs. Jones hastened downstairs, lamp in hand. When she saw the situation she laughed in spite of being very angry.

"IT'S THE MODEL," SHE SAID.

"It's the model," she said—"the model I bought today to fit my dresses on."

"Yes, thash so," said Jones tipsily. "Model woman—didn't talk back—make some fellow good wife."

Her Only Want.

"I have difficulty in satisfying my wife. She has a thousand wants."

"I have difficulty in satisfying mine, and she has only one want."

"What is it?"

"Money."—Baltimore American.

Consistency.

Mother—Aren't you goin' to wash up them tea things, Mariaranne, before you go out? Daughter—No, I ain't. I'm late enough for "mother's 'elp" class as it is.—London Opinion.

Modernity.

"Some are so intensely modern that they prefer a Corot to a Rembrandt."

"If it's a better hill climber I don't blame 'em. Me for the French car every time."—London Punch.

A Healthful Old Age for Women

The turn of life is the most critical period in a woman's existence. Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very distressing symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, extreme nervousness and despondency are symptoms of this condition.

Those hot flashes are just so many calls from nature for help. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life.

If this period is safely passed through the prospect will be good for a long period of sound health and comparative immunity from disease.

Here is Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon at this period:

Alton Station, Ky.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from female troubles in consequence of my age, and thought I could not live. I wrote you and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I thank you so much for the good it has done me."—Mrs. Emma Bailey, R. R. No. 1, Alton Station, Ky.

Kewaskum, Wis.—"Your medicine was a blessing to me in my sickness at Change of Life. I cannot describe what I suffered for five long years from headache, backache, dizziness, no sleep, palpitation of heart and irregularities which are common at that period and sometimes continue for weeks at a time.

"I have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am 54 years old and can do all my work."—Mrs. Carl Dahlke, Kewaskum, Wis.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

FOUGHT FOR CAUSE DURING REBELLION

Jacob Norris, aged 85 years and six months, one of the best known colored men of western Pennsylvania, expired at his home on Maple Creek this morning at 7:45, from complaints of old age.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home and interment will be in the Norris family burying ground. Service will be conducted by Rev. A. J. Irving of Monesen.

Mr. Morris was a native of this vicinity and spent his entire life in southwestern Pennsylvania. He was never a slave, but fought for the cause in the Union army, during the War of the Rebellion.

One son and one daughter survive. They are Miss Isabel, and David, both at home. One sister, Dorcas Tate, of Zanesville, and one brother, Bryan Norris of Cumberland, Md., also survive.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS MEETING AT M. E. CHURCH

Rev. F. A. Richards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached a most interesting sermon last night to a large audience at the fourth meeting of evangelistic services being held this week. His text was taken from Acts 17—30. "God commandeth all men everywhere to repent." Rev. Richards said among other things:

"To Paul's audience repentance was a new theme, but it was not so to us. It runs though the Bible from beginning to end. The text made a sweeping statement: All men, all conditions, saint and sinner, and therefore is applicable to every audience. Some people do not see that they need to repent—for they seem to think there are only four sins possible to men—drunkenness, adultery, theft and murder. But there were others, both of omission and commission. We are face to face with this alternative—either to repent and ask for mercy or else receive our just dues."

Tonight Rev. J. W D. Heazleton of Belle Vernon preaches and Friday the pastor preachs a sermon to young people.

How To Stop —A— Stubborn Cough

We don't mean just stop the irritation in your throat—but cure the underlying cause.

Cough syrups cannot do this. It takes a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—and cure you to stay cured. Vinol is the remedy you need.

Mrs. Minnie Osgood, of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes:-"After trying several remedies for a bad cough and cold without benefit, I was asked to try Vinol. It worked like magic. It cured my cold and cough and I gained in health and strength. I consider Vinol the most wonderful tonic and invigorator I ever saw."

If we cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver and iron tonic—which is made without oil—we will not charge you a cent for the medicine you buy. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be accepted. Don't you think so? With this understanding we ask you to try a bottle of VINOL.

WASH THAT ITCH AWAY

It is said that there are certain springs in Europe that possess real and cure to Eczema and other skin diseases. If you knew that by wading in these waters you could be relieved from that awful itch, wouldn't you make every effort to take a trip to Europe at once? Would you not be willing to spend your last cent to find the cure?

You need not leave home for these distant springs. Relief is right here in your own home town!

A simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients as compounded only in D. D. D. Prescription will bring instant relief to that terrible burning itch, and leave the skin as smooth and healthy as that of a child.

If you have not already tried it, get at least a 25-cent bottle to lay. We assure you of instant relief.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance, but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alterative.

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alterative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it, if you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption which has not been sensationally exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows,—

Weldon, Ill

Gentlemen: "During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die I heard of Eckman's Alterative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

GOVERNOR TENER THINKS VACATION IS NOT NECESSARY FOR LEGISLATURE

Old Stagres Propose Ten Days Recess But Executive Suggests They Stay on Job

PROPOSED SUNDAY LAW

Bill Introduced to Give Boroughs Power to Regulate Closing of Places on First Day of Week

(Special Correspondence)

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 2—For fear that they may get something done at this session, the old stagers of the Legislature are proposing a ten days' recess this month, in order to permit a frame-up to decide just what the public will or will not stand for in the matter of legislation this session. Governor Tener, however, thinks differently, and it is stated that he is decidedly of the opinion that the representatives of the people should perform the service for which they were elected. He wants them to stay on the job. They may take a recess, but it will not be with the Governor's approval.

Thus far there has been little done, except to introduce bills. Representative Ware comes to the front with a bill making the reading of the Bible obligatory in the public schools, which is pretty sure to stir up a lively fight. A radical Sunday observance bill has been introduced by Representative Robinson of Delaware, which gives boroughs the power to regulate the closing of places of business and stop the performance of worldly employment on the first day of the week. Should this act become a law boroughs could stop railroad trains and street cars, as well as every other form of secular labor that is usually performed on Sunday.

Bill posters are aroused over a measure introduced taxing bill boards a square foot. Bill Poster Homell of Belle Vernon, has already fired a petition against this measure the Fayette members, and a big fight will be made against the act.

If an act introduced by Representative Ailman becomes a law, some the Washington county townships will not have to levy any school tax all. This act provices for he payment of school teachers entirely from e State treasury. In this case the hool appropriation would have to be re than doubled. Fallowfield wnship, which has usually been ying half a mill school tax, would longer have to go through the tions, unless their board would e a notion to build and establist high school for which some of the tons have been agitating.

A bill prohibiting the importation cold storage food into the State has n introduced. This should reve the thoughtful attention of all seholders.

John W. Ailes, John H. Bowers Theodore J. Allen have been apnted viewers to assess benefits damages in the matter of the struction of a sewer in Parkinson et, between Church street and the st of the hill at Monongahela.

W. B. Taylor and family who have n in Knoxville, Tenn., for some have returned.

DONORA TO GET FILTERED WATER

Pipes Laid Across River and Service Installed Through Monessen Plant

Donora is the second town in Washington county to get reasonably pure water. WORK RESUMED ON NEW RIVER ROAD

Donora-Mononganela Highway Construction Work May be Finished Soon

Work discontinued late last fall on the new brick highway being constructed between Monongahela and Donora has been resumed and efforts are being made to push it to an early completion. Than, it is authentically stated, will begin the construction of a street car line leading north from Donora.

Donora has a street car line that runs the length of the town and has a street car called "Maud" for short. Citizens of that community greatly feel the need of better transportation facilites.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Important business, among which will be the election of officers for the ensuing year, will be taken up tonight at the regular monthly meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association.

A president, vice president and treasurer will be elected tonight. The secretaryship is an appointive office, the directors of the association choosing the man for this place.

Reports of committees appointed at the last meeting of the association will in all probability be heard tonight. The publicity committee, appointed to secure data on the town, is ready to report, and it is understood the committee on good roads and the one for a proposed free bridge between Monessen and Charleroi are also ready.

GRIEVING FRIENDS —COME WITH FLOWERS

Boy Gets His Feet Wet and Report Spreads That He is Drowned—Doesn't Like Business of Being a Corpse.

Robert Watkins, a Charleroi school boy, is not dead, but he has some semblance of a cold, contracted, it is stated, through getting his feet wet. His obituary has not been published, thank you.

Still people insist upon bringing flowers for the deceased, it having been reported that he was drowned.

Apparently the other day Robert had a misfortune. He was playing, so the story runs, with some other boys about his own age, when he fell into a creek. In some way the report got out that Robert was drowned, and it wasn't long until sorrowing, tearful friends began to drop in to console the grieved relatives and lay flowers on the dear lad's bier. Poor child. To think that his young life had been snuffed out at so tender an age. How natural he would look.

But Robert wasn't dead, as has been heretofore remarked, and he rather resented the insistence of people declaring he was, so a request has been made to make public the fact that it was all a mistake.

EDUCATORS OF COMMUNITY PLAN BIG MASS MEETING

Instructors Will Hold Session Friday and Saturday at Belle Vernon—Interesting Addresses Scheduled.

Great interest is being taken in an educational mass meeting to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, Belle Vernon, Friday evening and Saturday morning and afternoon under the auspices of the North Belle Vernon school. Educators of towns in the vicinity will attend and take part in the sessions. The object of the mass meeting is to bring together the school forces of the valley in order that a more definite line of action along school lines may be mapped out and the educational values of the various phases of school work emphasized accordingly.

Friday evening there will be a general session. Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock there will be two sessions, one a primary meeting and the other a round table session. The convention will close in the afternoon with a session at 1:30 o'clock.

In all probability Superintendent of Schools James G. Pentz and a number of Charleroi teachers will attend the sessions. Miss Edith Woodhall, a grade teacher at the Ninth street building, will discuss at the Primary meeting the topic, "The Different Phases of Busy Work in the Primary Grades and How to Make the Work Effective." Teachers and principals of various places nearby will have parts on the program. Special music will be rendered.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Congregation Formally Bids Rev. Joshua Adieu

Rev. C. S Joshua, late pastor of the First Baptist church and his wife were tendered a farewell reception by the member of the church and congregation last night. The affair was held at the church.

Following a brief prayer meeting, an informal meeting was held, presided over by Samuel Hawkins, superintendent of the Sunday School, and many short appreciative talks were made by members of the church and others who have known Rev. Joshua and his wife since they came here, showing the esteem in which they were held. Much sorrow was evidenced that the popular minister and his wife were forced to leave, but best wishes were extended to them that they enjoy the best success in their new field.

The ladies of the church served lunch after which a brief impromptu musical literary program was furnished, Miss Helen Hopkins of Monessen and Tom Harris of the same place singing solos, with accompaniment by Prof I. T. Daniel and Mrs. Joshua giving a reading. Rev. and Mrs. Joshua left this morning for their new home in Nesquehoning.

Card of Thanks

Through the medium of your paper I desire to thank my friends in Charleroi and vicinity for their many kindly offices and expression of sympathy extended on theoccasion of the death of belcved wife, Mrs. Sarah Reilly. I am truly grateful to all.

P. J. Reilly.

PHILLIPS WILL MANAGE CLUB

Signs Up to Head Youngstown of Ohio and Penn'a League.

After having received good offers from several places in different leagues ranging from the American down to the O. and P., "Bill" Phillips, the veteran pitcher and manager, who for years was with the Chicago Nationals this week signed articles to manage the Youngstown, Ohio, club of the O. and P. league at a handsome salary. Already Phillips is getting a line on players and expects to have several under contract before many days have passed. He will secure for Youngstown a number of faces heretofure strange to O and P. fans. As he is to be given a free rein he will undoubtedly land a winning team. Youngstown last year finshed in seventh place. To accept the O. and P. club's offer Phillips turned down offers made by St. Louis and Cleveland of the American league to scout.

BRER GROUNDHOG SEES SHADDER

Weather Prognosticater Peeps Out of Hole and Then Ducks Back Again

Weather prognostications were enthusiastically prognosticated today with Bre'er groundhog on the business end of the said prognostications. Bre'r Groundhog stuck his head out of his hole this morning along about 8 o'clock, saw his shadow and ducked back again. By this time he should be making noises that would make a buzz saw look sick. Sizzling cold weather may be looked for now to continue for six weeks to come.

MRS. TENER HAS "AT HOME" PARTY

Entertains Friends At Executive Mansion at Harrisburg

Mrs. John K. Tener gave the second of her afternoons at home yesterday in the Executive Mansion in Harrisburg and many prominent Harrisburg women called at the executive mansion. Mrs. Tener was assisted in receiving by Miss Edith Tener of Sewickley, Mrs. George Kunkle, wife of the Dauphin county president judge, Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. William J. Calder and Mrs Spencer C. Gilbert.

Mrs. Tener has issued cards for two evenings at home in February and on February 14 Gov. and Mrs. Tener will give a reception in honor of State officials and members of the Legislature.

CANDLES BLESSED

Solemn Ceremony Observed at St. Jerome's Church.

THROAT BLESSING FRIDAY

Today St. Jerome's Catholic congregation is observing one of the most solemn ceremonies of the Roman Catholic church, the Candlemas. Candles used throughout the church year in the various ceremonies were blessed this morning. Two masses were held, one at 7:30 o'clock and the other at 8 o'clock. It was at the latter that the blessing of candles took place. Candlemas Day is also known as the "Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin."

Friday will be another solemn day in the Roman Catholic church, being known as the Feast of Blasius, or the blessing of the throats. A pretty legend originated this feast. It is said that centuries and centuries ago a boy in eating fish got a fishbone stuck in his throat. It caused him great distress until finaly removed by St. Blasius. That saint thereupon became noted for his remarkable cures for throat afflictions.

The Blessing of the Throats at St. Jerome's church will take place at 8 o'clock Friday morning. An earlier mass will be held at 7:30 o'clock and another will be at 7 o'clock.

HEAD PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD MEN VIEW ROUTE OF PROPOSED PLAN

General Manager and Part of Officials Take Trip Through Southwestern Part of State.

PASS THROUGH CHARLEROI

Make Inspection of Monongahela Railroad Tracks Leading From Brownsville to Terminus at Martin

General Manager W. Hayward Myers of the Pennsylvania railroad with a party of head officials today made a trip over the Monongahela division of the sysem, and it is stated reviewed the proposed route of the Monongahela railroad extension from Martin to Rivesvile, W. Va. The party went through Charleroi on the way south by special train at 9 o'clock this morning.

Switching to the Monongahela railroad tracks at Brownsville the party went to Martin, the present terminus of that railroad. Then they came back over the same route and by another branch went to Leckrone. Transferring to the B. and O branch line there the party went to Fairchance, and then over the B. and O. lines, it is stated, south to Fairmont.

It is supposed that the trip of the general manager and his party has considerable to do with the beginning of work on proposed extensions to West Virginia and to Charleston. Mr. Hayward probably knows more about the general workings of the complete system owned by the Pennsylvania railroad than any other man, and his presence in any territory is not without special significance. The rumors of big developments in Greene county and other southwestern Pennsylvania points is borne out.

Not only does Mr. Hayward know all about the new lines to be built but he likewise has indirect charge of the building of new stations. No stop was made to examine the condition of Charleroi's dilapidated structure however.

Promoting Home Trade

Acting in conjunction with the efforts of the local Board of Trade to promote the business interests of the town, the Washington Record makes the following query:

"Why not recommend that Washington merchants use the newspapers for placing their wares and goods fairly before the buying public? This is the secret of reviving business in Washington, as much as any one thing. Out of town papers which are widely read in Washington carry with them glittering and bona fide inducements to people of Washington to come and spend their money. And the people do. It has been figured that an average of $500 in Washington money goes out of town each day. These figures look large, and the same money spent in Washington would be welcomed. Washington merchants meet bargain for bargain, the offer of outside firms. It should not be that offerings of Washington merchants are overlooked.

"Local papers provide the Washington merchants the channel through which contents of their shelves can be dispensed. Home advertising receives just as much attention as does that of the foreign market, and all that is required is that the people be given the same opportunity to see what is actually going on within the business houses of this town."

Many merchants in different towns do not advertise because they claim they cannot see any direct results. There is, however, a direct result apparent in such towns where the merchants do not advertise in the shape of a marked decrease in local trade, and an increase in the out-of-town buying on the part of the local people. "Out of sight, out of mind," applies to business firms as well as to individuals. Outside advertisements get in their deadly work when local merchants cease to advertise, and the whole community feels the effect.

"Holler" Now

Through the different bills introduced in the Legislature, the cold storage monopoly, so far as this State is concerned, may be settled once and forever. Various restrictions, limitations and regulations are proposed, and on of them may be sifted the proper regulations which will protect both the health and pocketbooks of the plain people.

It is up to the plain people, however, to look after their interests, and insist that an act be passed that will not contain a loophole as big as a barn door though which a trust coach and four can be driven. This is a problem that affects every household in the Commonwealth in the direct matter of dollars and cents. Mass meetings are being held regularly to promote local option, woman suffrage, civic improvements and what not. Why not hold some mass meetings to improve conditions of the household exchequer? To "bust" the cold storage trust would be to mean more eggs, better butter and cheaper meat for every family in the State. With the proper regulations on cold storage every family would live better and perhaps save enough money to take a trip to Atlantic City in the summer.

Some persistent, united and energetic work along this line just now will do more to save money for the working people than to "holler" later on over the burdens imposed by "Schedule K" of the wool tariff.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Apparently Charleroi was the first town or city in Washington county to get reasonably pure water. Thus we lead again while other follow.

Mrs. Schenk has become so fond of publicity that she tried to cross the Ohio in a skiff during flood time. She got publicity all right, but came near not needing it.

The man who's always happy
Is envied as a rule;
Sometimes he's a philosopher
And sometimes he's a fool.

After she is divorced Mrs. Schenk would have no trouble getting a job in a chorus.

Double tracks are to span the entire country. Will that noticeably reduce the cost of living?

Courtesy is something that all learned while young and most forget in older age.

The spirits didn't work, and the McKeesport girl failed to recover her sight.

It's not often people get a chance to hear good music, because there are so few good tunes being manufactured nowadays.

Little Willie

He was his parents' idol,
Their first born tootsie pet;
They made his life so easy
That he is idle yet.

After all has been said and done the fact still remains that a mechanical piano payer is better than any of the human devices.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The precept of watching as well as praying was never better exemplified than by an incident I witnessed when a small boy in Greene county," said a resident of the community at the Elks' club house the other evening. "In the farming community where I lived we used to go to Sunday school at a crossroads school house Sunday afternoon. As this was about the only occasion when the young people could get together during the week it was attended by the farmers' boys and girls from far and near. Of course some of the elder people were present in the capacity of officers and teachers. The superintendent was one of our farmer neighbors, a husky man of middle age, who used to pray fervently and long, standing with his eyes closed. Then it was that the boys used to cut up all kinds of rusties, and usually created much disorder.

"One afternoon the superintendent kept his eyes open during his prayer. At the further end of the room he saw one boy jab another with a pin, which was followed by an exclamation that caused a titter among the girls. Walking up the aisle of the school room, still praying the super grasped one boy by the collar cuffed his ears soundly and slammed him down in a seat. Reaching for the other boy he administered the same punishment, but in the meantime he still prayed on, never batting an eye or missing a word or sentence of his fervent prayer. Walking back to the front of the room, still praying, he faced the congregation again and finished his prayer amid a silence that was loud in its awful stillness.

"After that we always kept our eyes peeled to see whether the super watched as well as prayed."

Those big hats that the ladies now affect get their wearers into trouble in more ways than one. The other evening a newly married couple were walking down McKean avenue when a friend, a young man, overtook them. The trio walked along in pleasant conversation, the young man being slightly in the rear of the couple. All at once the husband noticed his wife stop suddenly. Turning around he saw her apparently struggling, and the young man in close proximity. A few wild thoughts flashed through his mind at the sight of the apparent mixup, when he saw that a bow of ribbon on his wife's hat had caught on a mail box beside the walk, and held her fasts while the friend was trying to release it.

"My hat's caught on this mail box," said the wife, as her husband came forward to lend his assistance.

"Is that all," he responded with a sigh of relief.

"All?" she replied in a tone of withering sarcasm. "Isn't it enough? If the trimming isn't all torn off, it's a wonder."

At the Macbeth Evans chimney factory is employed such a conglomeration of nationalities, that the factory rules are printed in more than a dozen languages and dialects. In addition to the more prominent nationalities are to be found Bohemians, Armenians, Roumanians, Bulgarians, those who speak the various Slavish and Russian dialects and Turks. Some of the most skilful decorators and etchers are from the Balkan states, and many of them have been employed in Contantinople, which is a famous glass manufacturing centre.

IN FIVE MINUTES

Upset Stomach Feels Splendid

Mi-o-na stomach tablets will relieve a distressed, sour or gassy stomach in five minutes.

In three days they will make the most miserable or cranky dyspeptic feel that there is plenty of sunshine in life.

In a week he will have an appetite for and will eat without any bad after effects food which now causes his stomach to strenuously rebel.

If continued for from two weeks to a month Mi-o-na will thoroughly renovate and cleanse the stomach and will come to it, no matter how obstinate in may be, to throw off its weakness and flabbiness and become as nature intended it should be, strong and elastic.

If you have a coated tongue, heartburn, sour food, upheavels, uneasiness in stomach, dizziness, biliousness, sick headache, bad dreams or any kind of stomach trouble put your faith in Mi-o-na tablets.

They will make the stomach strong and when the stomach is strong, good health, energy, vim and vigor comes.

ISN'T THIS TRUE?

A man may do a fair business and never advertise, but he has no right to assert that advertising will not pay him until he has tried it in a Business Way and finds that his trade has not improved as a result. Prejudice in its most unreasoning form prevents many a man from honestly testing advertising. He is afraid the evidence will prove his deeply grounded decision absolutely unreasonable and incorrect---he prefers losing business to suffering such a shock.

No medium reaches so many people in this territory as

The Scrap Book

Not Fit to Be Minister.

When the announcement was made that a certain distinguished citizen had been appointed to join the nation's diplomatic forces and assume an important foreign portfolio, the matter was naturally discussed with a great deal of interest among his acquaintances.

One day the subject came up in a company among which was one old fellow who had known the appointee for upward of forty years.

"What do you say he has been appointed to?" the old fellow asked.

"Why," answered one, "he has been appointed to be minister in one of the largest cities of Europe."

"Well, that's the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of," snorted the friend of the new diplomatist. "He's a nice feller, all right, but he ain't fit to be minister nowhere. Why, durn it, he don't even know the Lord's prayer."

Face the Sun.

Don't hunt after trouble, but look for success.
You'll find what you look for; don't look for distress.
If you see but your shadow, remember, I pray,
That the sun is still shining, but you're in the way.
Don't grumble, don't bluster, don't dream and don't shirk;
Don't think of your worries, but think of your work.
The worries will vanish; the work will be done.
No man sees his shadow who faces the sun.

Sometimes, Tommy.

The title of this dialogue might be "Why Papa Believes in Corporal Punishment:"

"Papa?"

"Well?"

"Is there a Christian flea?"

"Why, what on earth ever put that idea in your head?"

"The preacher read it today from the Bible. 'The wicked flee when no man pursueth.'"

"Why, Tommy, that means that the wicked men flee"—

"Then, papa, is there a wicked woman flea?"

"No, no. It means that the wicked flees runs away."

"Why do they run?"

"Who?"

"The wicked fleas."

"No, no! Don't you see? The wicked man runs away when no man is after him."

"Is there a woman after him?"

"Tommy, go to bed!"

A Model.

Mr. Jones came home at an unseemly hour the other night and was surprised to see Mrs. Jones sitting up for him below stairs, with no other light than that of the gas lamp which faced the door, to keep her company.

"M-M-Marie," he said huskily, "y-you shouldn't sit up s'late when I'm out on business."

As Mrs. Jones did not answer him, he continued in an alarmed voice:

"Sh-orry, m'dear, but it's last time—tell you I'm sorry. Won't shpeak to me?"

At this moment Mrs. Jones called from above stairs:

"Mr. Jones, who are you talking to at this hour of the night?"

"Thash what I'd like to know m-m-myself," stammered Jones.

Mrs. Jones hastened downstairs, lamp in hand. When she saw the situation she laughed in spite of being very angry.

"IT'S THE MODEL," SHE SAID.

"It's the model," she said—"the model I bought today to fit my dresses on."

"Yes, thash so," said Jones tipsily. "Model woman—didn't talk back—make some fellow good wife."

Her Only Want.

"I have difficulty in satisfying my wife. She has a thousand wants."

"I have difficulty in satisfying mine, and she has only one want."

"What is it?"

"Money."—Baltimore American.

Consistency.

Mother—Aren't you goin' to wash up them tea things, Mariaranne, before you go out? Daughter—No, I ain't. I'm late enough for "mother's 'elp" class as it is.—London Opinion.

Modernity.

"Some are so intensely modern that they prefer a Corot to a Rembrandt."

"If it's a better hill climber I don't blame 'em. Me for the French car every time."—London Punch.

A Healthful Old Age for Women

The turn of life is the most critical period in a woman's existence. Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very distressing symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, extreme nervousness and despondency are symptoms of this condition.

Those hot flashes are just so many calls from nature for help. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life.

If this period is safely passed through the prospect will be good for a long period of sound health and comparative immunity from disease.

Here is Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon at this period:

Alton Station, Ky.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from female troubles in consequence of my age, and thought I could not live. I wrote you and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I thank you so much for the good it has done me."—Mrs. Emma Bailey, R. R. No. 1, Alton Station, Ky.

Kewaskum, Wis.—"Your medicine was a blessing to me in my sickness at Change of Life. I cannot describe what I suffered for five long years from headache, backache, dizziness, no sleep, palpitation of heart and irregularities which are common at that period and sometimes continue for weeks at a time.

"I have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am 54 years old and can do all my work."—Mrs. Carl Dahlke, Kewaskum, Wis.

It was the degree team and the officers of the Lady Maccabees that gave a surprise to their pianist John McIlvaine at his home Wednesday night, instead of the ladies of the hive as reported. Invitations were confined to the degree team and officials.

FOUGHT FOR CAUSE DURING REBELLION

Jacob Norris, aged 85 years and six months, one of the best known colored men of western Pennsylvania, expired at his home on Maple Creek this morning at 7:45, from complaints of old age.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home and interment will be in the Norris family burying ground. Service will be conducted by Rev. A. J. Irving of Monessen.

Mr. Morris was a native of this vicinity and spent his entire life in southwestern Pennsylvania. He was never a slave, but fought for the cause in the Union army, during the War of the Rebellion.

One son and one daughter survive. They are Miss Isabel, and David, both at home. One sister, Dorcas Tate, of Zanesville, and one brother, Bryan Norris of Cumberland, Md., also survive.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS MEETING AT M. E. CHURCH

Rev. F. A. Richards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached a most interesting sermon last night to a large audience at the fourth meeting of evangelistic services being held this week. His text was taken from Acts 17—30. "God commandeth all men everywhere to repent." Rev. Richards said among other things:

"To Paul's audience repentance was a new theme, but it was not so to us. It runs though the Bible from beginning to end. The text made a sweeping statement: All men, all conditions, saint and sinner, and therefore is applicable to every audience. Some people do not see that they need to repent—for they seem to think there are only four sins possible to men—drunkenness, adultery, theft and murder. But there were others, both of omission and commission. We are face to face with this alternative—either to repent and ask for mercy or else receive our just dues."

Tonight Rev. J. W D. Heazleton of Belle Vernon preaches and Friday the pastor preachs a sermon to young people.

How To Stop —A— Stubborn Cough

We don't mean just stop the irritation in your throat—but cure the underlying cause.

Cough syrups cannot do this. It takes a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—and cure you to stay cured. Vinol is the remedy you need.

Mrs. Minnie Osgood, of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes:-"After trying several remedies for a bad cough and cold without benefit, I was asked to try Vinol. It worked like magic. It cured my cold and cough and I gained in health and strength. I consider Vinol the most wonderful tonic and invigorator I ever saw."

If we cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver and iron tonic—which is made without oil—we will not charge you a cent for the medicine you buy. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be accepted. Don't you think so? With this understanding we ask you to try a bottle of VINOL.

WASH THAT ITCH AWAY

It is said that there are certain springs in Europe that give relief and cure to [illegible] of skin diseases. If you knew that by washing in these waters you could be relieved from that awful itch, wouldn't you make every effort to take a trip to Europe at once? Would you not be willing to spend your last cent to find the cure?

But you need not leave home for these distant springs. Relief is right here in your own home town!

A simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients as compounded only in D. D. D. Prescription will bring instant relief to that terrible burning itch, and leave the skin as smooth and healthy as that of a child.

If you have not already tried it, get at least a 25-cent bottle to-day. We assure you of instant relief.

HARRY KISINGER FIRST CONTROLLER OF FAYETTE COUNTY

News of the appointment of Harry W. Kisinger, of Brownsville, as the first controller of Fayette county, has been received by Charleroi friends of the new incumbent with great pleasure. The appointment of Mr. Kisinger was made by Governor J. K. Tener on Monday and confirmation by the Senate followed shortly afterward He will serve until the first of next year when his successor to be elected during this year will take his seat. In all probability Mr. Kisinger will be a candidate for the election. His salary will be $4,000 a year. Fayette county has a population of 167,000.

The newly appointed controller is a member of the Charleroi Lodge of Elks and has a number of friends here.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alterative.

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alterative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it. If you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption which has not been sensationally exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:—

Weldon, Ill.

Gentlemen: "During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alterative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

(Signed Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB.

Eckman's Alterative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence. For Sale by all leading druggists and
